With more than 19 years experience as a surgeon, Dr. Schwartz is extensively trained in the latest advances in facial plastic surgery. He completed his medical school training at Baylor College of Medicine and trained at Columbia University Medical Center under the late Dr. John Conley, one of the premier facial plastic surgeons in the world. He is a board-certified facial plastic surgeon and certified otolaryngologist.

Patients trust and choose Dr. Schwartz based on his reputation, training, experience and rapport that he develops with each person. He wants every patient to have a positive, life-altering experience, and he strives to achieve results that make people see the face in the mirror that will make them smile and feel confident.

Dr. Schwartz is routinely sought after for his skilled hand, as well as his personal care and the compassion his patients seek and deserve. He takes pride in customizing current techniques to each patient and maintains a high level of surgical activity to maintain and enhance his expertise. He possesses expertise in rhinoplasty, revision rhinoplasty, eyelid surgery, face lifts, neck lifts, chin implants, ear surgery, post skin cancer facial reconstruction and facial injectables.

Since 1986, Dr. Schwartz has cared for thousands of patients. He has been named "Top Doc" five times in recent years.
